

TOWN OF BATAVIA PLANNING BOARD
PUBLIC HEARING APRIL 5, 2005

RE: GRANDMA'S LUVIN DAY CARE – CLINTON ST RD – SPECIAL USE PERMIT

The Public Hearing was called to order by Chairman Kathleen Jasinski at 7:45 pm. The notice, as published in the Batavia Daily News, was read by the Secretary.

Pamela McClurg, owner of Grandma's LuvIn Day Care, spoke to the Board Members. She expects they will be breaking ground this month. They have the capacity to care for eight-six (86) children and are in hopes of having day care in the evening and on weekends later on.

Chairman Jasinski stated that the SEQR was done last year when the project first came to the Board. The reason it has taken so long to get to ground breaking is because of the funding.

When no further comments or opinions were expressed, the public hearing was closed at 7:46 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathleen Jasinski
Chairman
